INMATE MAIL SCANNING

In an effort to keep contraband out of the Jail Facility a new system is being implemented for sending documents, photos and mail to inmates.

If you wish to send documents, photos and mail to inmates, we now have a quicker and more efficient method using our new Inmate Messaging system where you go to www.NCIC.com and set up an account. You can then easily send messages to an inmate for instant delivery. You can also take a picture of any documents and attach to these messages. This is much cheaper than postage, envelopes and the time it takes to mail a letter and the inmate will receive the message and/or picture instantly. There are no limits on how many messages and photos that can be sent to the inmates.

If you choose to send physical mail to an inmate, then the mail must follow the below guidelines and rules. There will be no exceptions to these rules and guidelines.

All inmate mail, EXCEPT for BOOKS, MAGAZINES, NEWSPAPERS, LEGAL MAIL AND MEDICAL MAIL, must be mailed to the following address utilizing existing Jail mail rules. All books, magazines, newspapers, legal mail and medical mail must be mailed to the facility.
